

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS:

Living Right Side Up: The God That Makes All The Difference

1. Suppose Dan is right, and Jesus challenges us to a mission identical to His – what does that mean for us? What inspires you to this mission? Practically speaking, what causes this mission to “abort”?
2. Jesus says that no place in our lives is outside of His reach. What places do we sometimes make “no faith” zones? “No integrity needed” zones?
3. What is the difference between something we hold to as a “personal right”, and something that is a healthy goal? What are the more challenging personal rights for you to release?
4. What is the love and compassion standard sketched in Romans 12: 9- 16; 1 Thessalonians 2: 1- 12? Describe it. How might over- focused responsibility choke this kind of love?
